

Dear festival visitors,

Thank you for finding your way to the International Womxn Theater Festival (IWTF). Already for the 5th time, the festival offers a stage to the artistic productions of womxn and strengthens their visibility in the arts. I am impressed by the diversity, the polyphony and the flexibility of the festival. In times of pandemics and war, we need places of global solidarity and local networking. Thank you for making culture come alive as a contribution to greater gender equality.

Rosemarie Heilig

Head of Department for Women and the Environment